Maryland Permit Fee Program
Maryland Public Interest Research Group
Chesapeake Bay Foundation
Enhanced environmental review of proposed applications
Support of influential environmental advocacy group
Marine Trades Association
Support of influential trade organization for businesses dependent upon access to healthy and productive waterways
More efficient, accurate and timely review of applications, with enhanced environmental Law Firms
Support of influential advisors to regulated community and stakeholder groups
Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission
More efficient, accurate, and timely review of applications
Support of influential quasi-govt agency, representing two urban counties, that provide water and sewer service
Maryland Aggregates Association
More efficient, accurate, and timely review of applications
Support of influential trade organization focusing on issues related to surface mining
Maryland Municipal League
Maryland Association of Counties
Support of influential stakeholder group of members with local land management authority, whose decisions support or conflict with wetland regulations
Timely/comprehensive review of local capital and private development projects, with comments and coordination early in review process
Maryland Association of Realtors
More efficient, accurate, and timely review of applications
Maryland State Builders Association
Support of influential trade organizations focusing on land development/ property transactions
Members of Environmental Matters Committee, Maryland House of Delegates
Members of Education, Health, and Environmental Affairs Committee, Maryland State Senate
Legislative support for funding / authority to charge fees
Ability to provide improved service to stakeholders and constituents
Maryland Board of Public Works, Wetland Administration
More efficient and timely coordination, more effective resource review and recommendations for decisions on actions under Board authority
Additional support for legislative change, as implementer of portions of Maryland Tidal Wetland Statute
Environmental Consultants
More efficient, accurate, and timely review of applications
Stakeholder support from professionals advising, and providing services to, applicants/ landowners on regulatory process
Maryland Association of Conservation Districts
Confirmation that agricultural interests will not face additional requirements
Support of influential government prof. org. that provides technical/financial assistance to ag community, reviews erosion/sediment control plans